

ZAWiW Ulm, Germany

Grundtvig Learning Partnership 2010-2012

Resume EWA

Women aged 70+ spent their lives with outstanding courage and social engagement. Their life stories told us how to master turning points in older age. We, women 50+, were introduced to creative writing and interview techniques. We used texts, photos, video and audio recordings as well as IT techniques to document these stories and to make them available to others.

Role Models

Erika Bucholtz, 95 years old former secretary, today living in a nursing home, maintains daily contact to current life and events. She is interested in watching TV news and documentaries and reading. Above all she likes speaking on the phone and meeting people. Her motto is: „Active and autonomous life keeps me fit“.

Erna Subklew completed her doctorate thesis in Turkish studies during her retirement. The 88 years old former teacher has started a literary circle. She is active in computer communication for seniors and she writes texts for an online-journal. She is engaged in different voluntary work especially with Turkish children.

www.european-women.eu

ZAWiW, Universität Ulm

Albert-Einstein-Allee 47
89081 Ulm

Website: www.zawiw.de

Carmen Stadelhofer
Tel.: +49 (0)731 50 23193
E-Mail: carmen.stadelhofer@uni-ulm.de
E-Mail: gabriela.koerting@uni-ulm.de