

“THE ACADEMIC WEEK – PROMOTION OF LIFELONG LEARNING FOR OLDER ADULTS”

The Project was conducted by the Serbian Association of Andragogists, in cooperation with the Institute for Pedagogy and Andragogy of Faculty of Philosophy, Third Age University and the Foundation for humane aging “Dr Laza Lazarevic”. It was funded by the Centre for Promotion of Science, the Serbian Government’s Agency.

Beside the Faculty of Philosophy, six other faculties of University of Belgrade were contacted and four of them were able to join the Project: Faculty of Philology, Pharmacy, Medical and Forestry.

There were 139 participants, age 55+, informed through the Third Age University, the Foundation, public media and other different channels. Most of them were interested in medical topics, while all of them expressed high satisfaction with the content and the way it was presented during the six workshops.

The Academic week has been organized from November 19-23, 2012, in premises of five involved faculties:

Day	Time	Venue	Lecturer	Topic
Monday, Nov 19	12 00	Faculty of Philosophy	Prof.Danijel Sinani, PhD	Aging in our traditional religion: myth about “lapot”
	17 00	Faculty of Pharmacy	Prof. Nada Kovacevic, PhD	Herbs and herb teas – help, usefulness and joy
Tuesday, Nov 20	18 30	Faculty of Philology	Prof.Mihajlo Pantic, PhD	Perceptions of aging in the literature
Thursday, Nov 22	11 30	Faculty of Philosophy	Prof. Stasa Babic, PhD	Were all old Greeks really old – Archaeology and life stages
	16 00	Faculty of Forestry	Prof. Milan Medarevic, PhD	From young forest to a virgin forest – economic and environmental aspects of forest aging
Friday, Nov 23	11 00	Medical Faculty	Ass.prof Bojana Matejic, PhD	Health, life quality and aging